

Mr. Powell and the FCC:

Please do not repeal the regulations that prohibit one corporation from owning television stations and newspapers in one city or town. A single dominant commercial voice and perspective is a thing to be avoided--multiple views and diverse opinions are things to be encouraged: they constitute, in fact, the lifeblood of a democracy.

Thank you.